

Andrea L. Battle, Ed.S

Andrea has held many titles such as Realtor, Educational Administrator, Instructional Coach, Educational Specialist, Teacher Leader. She has earned a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, Master of Education, Educational Specialist, is currently in the dissertation phase of a Doctorate of Education, and a Real Estate License. A dreamer and visionary at her core, she dreams of equity where there is none and making a difference in all people. Essentially, she is a passionate leader who is dedicated to creating environments where humans thrive.

Andrea is a part of a domestic real estate team with her husband—Built4Battle Real Estate powered by EXP. She has extensive experiences leading teachers and students in primary, middle, and high school learning environments. She has used her psychology and special education background to delve into student behaviors while engaging educators in Trauma Informed Care and Social Emotional Learning. After all these years, there's no other place she would rather be than working with students, teachers, and educational leaders to ensure that all are able to realize their goals. Whether those goals are acquiring an education, educating others, or assisting with real estate, she is happy to be a resource to all around her.

Andrea lives in Georgia and believes her greatest success is navigating life with her adoring husband of 13 years, three beautiful daughters, supportive family, and countless friends.
